

CHEN CHEN & KAI WILLIAMS

Brooklyn, New York-based designers Chen Chen and Kai Williams are known for their eclectic range of avant-garde furniture, functional products, and decorative objects - which include one-off and collectible works as well as commercial goods. The pair met while studying industrial design at The Pratt Institute, and launched their joint venture in 2011. With a mutual interest in transformative materials, their process relies heavily on experimentation - often with earthy materials like ceramics, stone and wood.
